

PERMITS GIVEN DANCE HALLS BY S. F. COMMISSION

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—General tightening of dance hall regulations is resulting from the vice commission trial and the riot on the Barbary Coast Sunday night.

The police commissioners at a meeting last night ordered an end to "closed" dance halls where only women who are "employees" are permitted. On condition that this practice cease nine permits were required.

The permit for the Winter Garden which is claimed to be the dance hall where James Carey and Jessie Montgomery, principals in the gangster cases, first met, was held up for consideration another week. It was announced by grand jurors that further inquiry would be made in to the granting of a permit to the Pergola dance hall on Broadway. This permit had been repeatedly refused and courts had denied mandate for its issuance. Building Inspector Morgan and others took the ground that the building used did not and could not meet requirements of the building code. Violation of the law is now charged.

P. H. McCarthy, head of the building trades council, was charged with being financially interested and with having used political influence. McCarthy said his only interest was to see the expansion of San Francisco enterprises.

In police court eighteen girls and civilians in the Sunday night riot were released by Judge John Sullivan. The four Italians, proprietors of the Broadway play were held. Police Judge Oppenheim granting their continuance. Two hundred sailors and sailors were handled by provost guards and returned to posts for discipline.

Fiend Invades Home MRS. I. F. MEEK, who fought unsuccessfully with assailant at her Berkeley home

BERKELEY WOMAN IS THUG'S VICTIM

Four feet tall, of medium build, smooth shaven, light complexion, wearing a light gray suit and dark cap, with brown shirt tucked at the neck. As he came toward her, without uttering a word, she said the one thing she noticed about his head was that his long light hair hung down over his eyes.

Mrs. Meek exhibited scratches on her breast, made by the ruffian's finger nails as he tore away her waist, which was hanging to her by shreds when she awoke to the vicious recollection of what had taken place. In her own room, a Christmas tree was tipped over, some dishes were broken and several household articles displaced. Her skirt was torn in several places.

Four feet tall, of medium build, smooth shaven, light complexion, wearing a light gray suit and dark cap, with brown shirt tucked at the neck. As he came toward her, without uttering a word, she said the one thing she noticed about his head was that his long light hair hung down over his eyes.

Mrs. Meek held back no facts in relating the account to the police. She described it as a near tragedy in her nine months of happily wedded life. Last April she was married to Oakland's newest and tallest policeman, Patrolman S. F. Meek. The marriage took place three days after Meek became a policeman. He was better known to the members of the force, as "Slim" Meek.

Mrs. Meek arrived home from France a year ago last March, after seeing much action and suffering much hardship. The first person he saw when he stepped from the train was Emily Vollmer, who had been writing him letters all the time he was in France telling him how much she cared for him and that she would wait for him.

Mrs. Vollmer's parents opposed an immediate wedding on the grounds that Meek could not support a wife after spending many long, weary months in France on a soldier's pay. Nevertheless, they went quickly to San Francisco and were married, and straightaway there was a fuss. The Vollmers declared the girl under age and the marriage void. Last April, her 18th birthday, she promptly married Meek, who was then doing all he could toward saving a bank account. And they have lived happily ever since. Meek later quitting the business of being a policeman because he could get more money as a chauffeur, the job that he capably held down on the battlefields overseas.

And last night came the stranger into the happy home, and he left a loser in the game that he would play.

Lakeshore Residence Is Looted of $1000

A. H. Crawford, 226 Lakeshore boulevard, reported to the police today that burglars entered his home last night and carried away more than $1000 in jewelry and money.

RAD CHECKS PASSED. SPokane, Wash., Dec. 28.—Wanted in Visalia, Cal., on a felony warrant, Norman Warsniske was arrested today. He is charged with having passed two bad checks in the California town. Efforts are being made to make the checks good and close up the affair.

about an hour later. Shortly afterwards Durham called the clerk on the telephone and asked for a physician.

SOLDIER DOPED AND BOULDER LOBBED. When Dr. Lee Smith arrived the soldier was on the floor writhing in agony, and lapsed into unconsciousness after telling the physician that he was invited by two men to have a drink in a lower Broadway saloon. Later it was discovered his pockets were slashed open and $125 which he was known to have possessed was missing.

In San Francisco police found a man, thought to be Dan Shanahan, unconscious in Portsmouth square. He died at the Central Emergency hospital two hours later and physicians ascribed death to "bootleg booze." The third case of "booze" poisoning was an unidentified man found in Washington square in San Francisco. At the Central Emergency hospital physicians today held little hope for his recovery.

WOMAN BRITANNIA ATTACKED IN STORE.

Armed with blackjacks, three the Irish grocery store at 716 Eleventh street and ordered a dozen eggs. While Mrs. Hirsch was stooping to fill a bag one of the trio struck her on the head with a brick. Hirsch, stunned, but not unconscious, Mrs. Hirsch screamed and the robbers fled without obtaining any loot. They made a hurried effort to open the cash register, but abandoned the effort when the woman's screams attracted pedestrians.

A carpenter working across the street from the store saw chase to the fleeing bandits, but was outdistanced. Mrs. Hirsch said the trio made no attempt to conceal their features.

Cracksmen operating in an automobile swapped down on a number of establishments in the lower end of the county over Sunday and the early morning hours yesterday. A motor valued at $5000 was stolen from a general merchandise store at Alvarado, the scene of two recent bank robberies, and a garage at Livermore was entered and tools, tires and necessities valued at about $2500 carried away. Deputy Sheriff Joseph Soares with a squad of men is searching the country in a systematic effort to round up the gang.

FAST OAKLAND HOMES RANSACKED

Four homes in East Oakland were entered and ransacked by a lone burglar and a total of $1500 in loot secured. In every instance the housebreaker entered through an unfastened rear window.

All of the homes were within a short distance of each other. They are: J. A. Wilson, 3825 Agua Vista avenue, $75 in prized liquors and valuables taken; E. E. Perkins, 1855 Bridge street, $150 in currency, seven, frank, wash, coat, fringe, jewelry valued at $215 and $8 in cash missing; C. V. Yancey, 4828 Congress street, $50 in cash and some jewelry.

Police are inclined to the belief that the three youths responsible for attacking Mrs. Hirsch in the Eleventh street grocery may be the same who last week held up and robbed two Berkeley merchants and a Richmond man. The robbery Sunday night of G. A. Barthels, proprietor of a general store at 2316 San Pablo, is thought to have been perpetrated by the same trio.

Attacked by heavily armed and masked bandits as he stepped from a street car at Hopkins and Ellison streets late last night, E. E. Yancey was robbed of $50 and a gold watch.

According to the story Yancey told the police he was on his way home from 3316 Ellison street, and had proceeded for a short distance on the line when the bandit stepped from behind a tree and struck him on the head. The only description he was able to give of his assailant was that he was a large man, dressed in the uniform of a soldier, wore a tan hat and a black mask which completely covered his features.

Thieves Make Raid On Alameda Homes

ALAMEDA, Dec. 28.—Alameda has been experiencing an epidemic of burglaries in the past three days. The largest haul the thieves made was in the home of B. L. Allison, 1721 Nason street, where they secured jewelry to the value of $231. Entrance was gained through a rear window which had been jimmied.

The home of Mrs. Fred Wolfe, 3046 San Jose avenue, was entered in the same manner, and it is thought the work was done by the same operators. Nothing of value was taken.

The rear window of the home of J. D. Holden, 1114 San Jose avenue, was apparently too strongly encased for the jimmie to force. The window sill was badly marked by the digging of the burglar's tools.

In the store of W. Van Gelder, Central avenue and Park street, the front door was jimmied. Nothing of value was secured by the burglars.

When Mrs. M. E. Bell of 1900 Condit avenue returned home yesterday she found that a number of packages had been received from friends in Riverbank, but that they had all been looted after delivery.

Chicago Man Gives Up in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28.—A man who said he was C. F. Price, Chicago, today surrendered to the United States marshal. He said he was under indictment in Chicago in connection with alleged land frauds and deposited $5000 bail for his appearance. Price said he had been indicted with seventeen others in connection with the affairs of the Daniel Hayes company of Idaho. He said he had been selling lands in the Churchill project that was recently under investigation by federal officials in Chicago.

S. F. Bar Association Would Recall Oppenheim, Sullivan

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Morrison Oppenheim, police judge, will face disbarment proceedings instituted at the instance of the discipline and grievance committee of the Bar Association of San Francisco within the next few weeks.

At the same time attorneys of the Bar Association will confer on and choose candidates to run for the offices from which it is proposed to recall Oppenheim and Judge John J. Sullivan.

At a meeting last night at which the disbarment action was ordered, Oppenheim was not present but he sent a letter of protest and a demand that disbarment action be taken at once.

Recall petitions against the police judges are to be filed on Friday. Fifteen days for checking the names is allowed. The election must then be held within fifty days.

In recommending disbarment action, Max Kuhl, chairman of the investigating committee, produced a list of charges and declared that the surface had only been skimmed although the inquiry had been long. Kuhl commented on the many felony cases, 93 per cent, that had been dismissed by Oppenheim and referred to Peter J. McDonough who with "Kid" Sullivan had handled most of the cases, he said.

"The George Imperiale case is the

Mayflower, Yacht of President, Afire

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Fire which broke out in the galley today for a time threatened the destruction of the presidential yacht Mayflower. Concerted efforts by sailors and men of the fire-fighting force at the Washington navy yard finally checked the fire. It was said that the damage done can be readily repaired.

Knife Tragedy Is Mystery to Police

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 28.—A new murder mystery was given police to solve today with the finding of a well-dressed man stabbed through the heart on a boulevard in the south side. Two farmers found the man conscious but unable to speak. He died before aid could be summoned. Tracks of a motor car indicated he had been thrown from the car after being stabbed.

Three Killed, Eight Hurt in Explosion

OTTAWA, Kans., Dec. 28.—Authorities today launched a rapid investigation of a boiler explosion at a laundry here which killed three persons and seriously injured others, including seven girls. Ten of the victims were buried under tons of debris when the laundry collapsed following the blast. Two of the injured girls may die.

TURLOCK AFFAIR CAUSES TRAGEDY

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 23.—A father and son were wounded, the latter perhaps mortally, in a shooting affray today in the heart of the Phoenix business district.

Those who were shot are James Nielsen of Buckeye, Ariz., and his father, Albert Gray of Miami, Ariz., who were arrested on a charge of murder in connection with the shooting.

The younger Nielsen, who was wounded, is a well-known figure in the Phoenix business district. He is a native of Sweden and has been in the United States for many years. He is a member of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce and is well known to the business community.

The shooting took place in the heart of the business district, near the intersection of Main and Washington streets. The two men were walking down the street when they were stopped by a group of men who were armed with revolvers. One of the men fired a shot which wounded Nielsen in the chest. Nielsen then turned and fired a shot which wounded Gray in the arm. The two men then fled from the scene of the shooting.

The police are now searching for the two men who shot Nielsen and Gray. They are believed to be in the Phoenix area. The police are also looking for the man who shot Nielsen in the chest. He is believed to be the same man who shot Nielsen in the chest.

SOB STORY WINS 'EASY MONEY' FOR GIRL, SAY POLICE

A girl, described as 18 years old and pretty, gathered in some "easy money" in the Piedmont and Lake Shore districts, the police are informed.

The girl, crying, called at various houses and asked to use the telephone. She said she had just lost her purse and all her money and couldn't even get a car home.

A conversation over the wire, believed to have been a pretense, usually was followed by a request for the "loan" of a dollar or so. The police say the young woman shed tears at every door in some blocks.

necessity and that those opposing it must be considered traitors.

ARMY AND NAVY BOMBARD CITY

PARIS, Dec. 23.—According to a despatch from Rome, the dreadnaught Andreodora has bombarded Gabrielle D'Annunzio's headquarters in Fiume.

PARIS, Dec. 23.—A portion of that section of Fiume lying near the waterfront has been wrecked by shells from the Italian regulars' artillery, according to reports received here today from Fiume.

An Exchange Telegram despatch from Rome said it was definitely decided there that D'Annunzio had been killed, although reports persist that the warrior-poet had met his death Monday morning.

30 KILLED, 200 WOUNDED

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Thirty of the Italian regulars attacking Fiume have been killed and 200 wounded, said a despatch from Trieste today.

A telegram received at 8:10 this morning stated that the capitulation of the city by the legionnaires was believed imminent. The mayor of Fiume had requested a truce, but it was refused. The mayor then arranged to meet General Ferrario for fresh negotiations later in the day.

PARIS, Dec. 23.—Nine civilian residents of Fiume have been killed and thirty wounded by the bombardment of the city by Italian regulars, said a despatch from Milan today.

Fiume is completely surrounded by government troops.

ITALIAN PREMIER'S RESIDENCE STONED

LONDON, Dec. 23.—An Italian crowd sympathetic to Gabriele D'Annunzio attacked and stoned Premier Giolitti's residence in Rome, according to a Rome despatch to the Daily Express today.

Another pro-D'Annunzio crowd at Rome invaded the elite concert, shouting and bearing banners, but was ejected by the police.

It is reported in Rome that two attempts at rebellion at Fiume were suppressed by D'Annunzio.

ANGONA, Italy, Dec. 23.—Italian troops attempting to dislodge legionnaires at Zara were hindered in their work by women of the city, according to statements made by soldiers who have arrived here. As the troops advanced toward the barracks where the legionnaires were stationed many women formed in line on the front of their screaming, "Kill us first, and then you can exterminate the volunteers."

A few hours later the legionnaires surrendered, and were brought here as prisoners.

BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Gabriele D'Annunzio from the beleaguered city of Fiume sent the following Christmas greetings to the government at Rome by wireless, according to a Rome despatch to the Daily Express today:

Judge Samuels Inducts His Successor Into Police Job

This morning it was Police Judge George Samuels who wound up his business of administering justice at the city hall and turned over his desk to Edward J. Tyrrell, the new justice of the peace who was chosen yesterday by the board of supervisors.

"During my entire term as judge of this court and my dealings with the police, the officers of the court and the attorneys for prosecution and defense, I have found them always courteous and willing with co-operation without which it would have been impossible to carry on the excellent work of the entire department."

"If I may be permitted to speak a word of advice to you, I urge you to continue with the same spirit and co-operation in the cases of first offenders. Take them by the hand but not in the paths of recidivism."

Judge Samuels then paid a particular compliment to that of Police J. Frank Lynch, whom he said had been up to his present high position by dint of efficiency and painstaking thoroughness in all things.

TYRRELL MAKES REPLY

"I am deeply appreciative of the remarks of Judge Samuels who so kindly invited me to give him an account of the illness of his experience and I accept the position with the full knowledge that I perform my duties as well as Judge Samuels has done the people will have no occasion to regret my appointment."

"The title of Judge means nothing to me except a duty to render justice to all the officers of the court. I have been placed in a position of trust. I feel the same cooperation from all the officers of the court."

Judge Samuels said he has been a very busy man and that he has been in the city hall for a long time. He said he has been in the city hall for a long time and that he has been in the city hall for a long time.

JUDGE SAMUELS SPEAKS

In the course of the exercises which marked the change of judges, Judge Samuels said in part:

"Senator Tyrrell, I feel a great deal of pleasure in introducing you into office. I have watched your career from your first entrance into public life until the present time and can only say that I desire to refer to your career as one of the most successful in the city."

"In the course of your career you have shown a great deal of ability and a great deal of courage. You have shown a great deal of ability and a great deal of courage. You have shown a great deal of ability and a great deal of courage."

CITY PREPARES TO OPEN QUINCE ST.

A resolution modifying the terms of the lease of certain city lands in the southeast-central Oakland to the Pacific Electric street car company was given final passage in the city council this morning. This modification allows for the straightening of Ninthteenth avenue and its use as a highway.

The city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance for the opening of the street from Jones avenue to the city limits.

SCOUT LEADER TO RECEIVE MEDAL

Wilbur E. Maltbie, general manager of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, will present Lewis Vincent, assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 21, the winner of the national prize in the essay on "Fire Prevention," with a gold medal tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the council chambers.

The members of the court of honor and their attendants will assist Maltbie in presenting the medal.

Explosion Wrecks Launch; Crew Escape

An explosion on the launch Annie carrying freight between Pier 17, San Francisco and San Rafael, resulted in a fire which destroyed the craft and a cargo. The crew escaped without injury.

The launch was in San Rafael creek and jumped over into the mud to escape. The boat was the property of the San Rafael and San Francisco Transportation company. The office of which is in San Francisco docks was reported closed today. Partial insurance on the craft was said to have been carried. Federal officers were to inquire into the cause of the explosion.

Wilson Asked to Account for Money

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—President Wilson is requested, if not incompatible with public welfare, to give the House an itemized and complete statement of expenditures from the $150,000,000 given him by Congress for the relief of the unemployed.

The House is now considering a resolution to require the president to give the House an itemized and complete statement of expenditures from the $150,000,000 given him by Congress for the relief of the unemployed.

SNOW LOADING IS SUCCESS

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—Chicago's snow loading machine, put to its initial test following yesterday's snow, proved a complete success, according to city officials. The machine, which is the first ever used here, and said to be one of the first in the country, did the work of twelve trucks and sixty men, it was said.

Woman Charged With Unseemly Conduct

Charged with running about the city streets partially clad, a woman giving her name as Mrs. J. P. McGraw, was taken into custody early today by C. C. Warren, patrolman. The policeman declared that he had found a woman in the soft drink parlors of M. Phillips at the corner of Fortieth and Grove streets and that by the time he arrived at the scene Mrs. McGraw was being few arguments, fled through the snow-drifted streets.

The woman was held for investigation.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 23.—A declaration of the Rhine commission from Dusseldorf said the international Rhine commission, alarmed because of the spread of militarism in German schools, has issued an order prohibiting the use of schools for military purposes, on penalty of confiscation of the schools and arrest of those held responsible.

TRESSES SHAVED OFF HER HEAD, IS WIFE'S CLAIM

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23.—"Ridiculously jealous, he took a razor and shaved my head as bald as a rock,"

This is the amazing accusation that Mrs. Maillie Morris, formerly of 1920 Twenty-first street, Santa Monica, seven years ago made against her husband, Angel Morris, proprietor of the Morris Bakery, 627 South San Pedro street, when she alleged he had shaved her head.

Authority is Sought For Aviation Chief

PARIS, Dec. 23.—France boasts of an Air Ministry administered by Pierre Planchon, who is an enthusiastic flyer and never misses a chance of using an aeroplane when called away out of Paris on some mission. But paradoxical as it seems M. Planchon is in reality but a figurehead. He is but the subordinate of the ministers for war and the navy. He cannot pass any contracts with aeroplane firms without having the approval of his colleagues. He cannot map out aerial routes in France without the approval of the minister of public works, nor in the colonies without the approval of the responsible minister. No credit, no given him for aeronautics, and his budget is included in that of the minister for war.

WIFE TIES UP SPOUSE'S RICHES

Restraint by a Superior court order from disposing of his quarter-million-dollar estate, Norman Ellsworth, is being sued for divorce by his wife, Mrs. Marvel E. Ellsworth, 5322 Lawton avenue, in a suit just filed charging infidelity.

Mrs. Ellsworth, who is an Oakland society woman, charges that her husband deserted her November 13, 1917, and that he has been living with a woman named Katherine Miller. The Ellsworths were married here January 2, 1901.

GERMANS MAKE PROTEST AGAINST EXECUTION FILM

HAVANNA, Dec. 25.—Official protest against the showing of a moving picture film portraying the execution of Edith Cavell, who was put to death by the Germans in Brussels, October 12, 1915, was made here yesterday.

Karl Zittelmann, German minister to Cuba, as a protest to the state department, filed a protest with the state department.

MAN WHO KILLED BOY WITH AUTO IS FINED $1000

SAN JOSE, Dec. 25.—Alexander M. Smith, a wealthy young man of this city, who was convicted of having run down a fatally injured and abandoned Richard Buehns of San Jose with an automobile four months ago, was sentenced today to pay a fine of $1000 or serve 250 days in jail.

William Field, a banker, was originally charged with having run down Buehns, but the charge was dismissed after Mrs. Myrtle Curry, who was in the automobile with Field and Smith, admitted, according to the district attorney, that Smith drove the machine and that she and Smith had agreed to place the blame on Field.

Christmas Seal Sale May Reach $15,000

Partial returns from the 1920 Christmas Seal sales report $10,000 realized by the Alameda County Tuberculosis Association. With a number of centers yet to report, it is expected that the final total will exceed the $15,000 mark.

At the same period last year but $7500 was reported, an additional $5000 later being turned over. The funds will be used in promoting an intensive campaign against tuberculosis in 1921.

BANKER SCORES FILIPINOS' RULE

A "disastrous lobby" adopted by Governor Francis Harrison, permitting the Filipinos to govern themselves when conditions now prevailing in the islands "prove conclusively that the Philippine independence should be postponed for at least 25 years," is responsible for the deplorable state of finances now existing in the islands.

This was the announcement today of Harold M. Pitt, for five years president of the Manila Chamber of Commerce, who has returned to Oakland after residing in the islands for 22 years. Pitt attributed the conditions there to the "tax" of Governor Harrison, whom he declares, has invested control of the island government in Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine senate.

Although the Japanese are farming extensively in Mindanao, the largest Oriental problem is not acute in the Philippines, according to Pitt. He forebodes, however, that immediately upon the withdrawal of the United States, Japan will assume a mandatory.

Young People Carry Cheer to Hospital

Filled with a desire that the spirit of Christmas should rule everywhere, the young people of the Melrose Baptist church and of Epworth Memorial M. E. church, Berkeley, journeyed to Arroyo sanitarium last Sunday and conducted Christmas services there.

The program consisted of a number of musical selections, including three Christmas hymns, which were sung by the young men of the Melrose church. "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," a contralto solo, rendered by Mrs. C. D. Cooke, and a piano solo by Miss Harriet Holmes. R. T. James recited "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel." Rev. J. B. Orr of Boulevard Congregational church made the Christmas address and led the devotions.

Gifts, prepared by the young people of the Melrose, Epworth and Danish-Norwegian churches, were distributed following the program.

Alleged Robbers of Bank Caught By Dog

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28.—A pet dog was said to be responsible for the arrest today in Chicago of Franklin B. MacCarthy and Dorothy R. McKinnell known also as Mrs. MacCarthy, the police said, both of whom are wanted here to answer charges of having robbed a bank of $3000.

The woman was said to be so attached to the dog—a collie—that she took it with her wherever she went, so operatives of a detective agency traced her through the animal.

The man and woman are said to have used a system by which they robbed one bank by maintaining small accounts in four others, while the man worked as a statement clerk in the bank alleged to have been defrauded.

In 1919, it was estimated that 11,000,000 women over ten years of age in the United States were wage earners.

Mexico Congress to Take Up Labor, Banks

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 28.—Petroleum, labor and banking questions will be the principal business to be laid before the special session of Congress which has been called to meet January 3, next, by President Obregon. The present session of Congress will adjourn on December 31, after almost four months of continuous work. During this time no legislation of a conspiracy character has been enacted.

FINANCE DISTRICT HOLD-UPS FEWER

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Holdups in the financial district of this city which last year were of costly frequency, are reported by surety companies to be decreasing. This is partly because brokers have hired ex-politicians and firemen to convey valuable securities such as soldier-laden transports were protected by destroyers in war days. Also it is attributed to unrelenting prosecution of dishonest employees and messengers by surety concerns which bore heavy losses during the orgy of robberies and embezzlements.

In assigning these reasons for the fewer holdups, William A. Griffin, president of the National Surety company, said his concern and similar ones had spent several hundred thousand dollars in ferreting out and prosecuting men connected with the dishonest practices.

At police headquarters it was said the services of retiring patrolmen and firemen have been at a premium since the surety companies advised brokers to hire them. Several hundred of these ex-servicemen have been employed in the financial district.

Some of the former patrolmen and firemen are used as guards and watchmen for inside offices of financial concerns and other accomplices messengers. Usually two of them precede the messengers and two follow behind as they go from broker to broker carrying bonds, stocks and other securities.

Financial or commercial concerns which are using this method of guarding their property while in transit through the streets declare that it is a vast improvement over the employment of messengers of unreliable youths about whom they know nothing. Some of these youths have proved to be in conspiracy with gangs of hold-up men and have notified them of the opportunity to stage a robbery that would yield a big haul.

Fugitive Bond Broker Is Arrested in Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 28.—John L. Etheridge, former president of Morris Brothers, bond dealers in Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, arrested here late yesterday in connection with an alleged deficit amounting to more than $100,000, is in the city jail here today waiting for a return from the Oregon city who left there today.

The bond dealer, who according to word from New Jersey, served two terms in prison there following conviction of charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, was on his way to England, police believe. He was accompanied by his wife and refused to make any comment on his arrest but said that he probably would fight extradition. He had more than $13,000 in currency on his person when arrested, police said. Bonds worth more than $15,000 were shipped back to Portland to Fred S. Morris, left in charge of the firm, which is now closed, by the former president, receipts in his pockets showed.

The bond dealer's wife, who spent the night in a downtown hotel, denied any guilt on her part and declared that her husband's accounts were in good shape when he left. Etheridge said he and his wife had to have overdrawn their personal accounts more than $100,000.

MORRIS KNEW RECORD.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28.—John L. Etheridge, fugitive, former president of Morris Brothers, bond dealers, whose houses in Portland, Seattle and Tacoma failed to open yesterday, is an ex-convict, with two prior terms New Jersey charged against his record, according to a verified statement received and published here from Irvin C. Beam, clerk of the New Jersey state prison.

Fred S. Morris, who resumed his former position as head of Morris Brothers when Etheridge resigned and fled from Portland last week, confirmed the fact of Etheridge's prison record. He said he knew about it long before Etheridge was promoted to be head of the bond house and left in full charge. Etheridge, he said, had told him his story and he believed fully that Etheridge had reformed.

TWICE IN PRISON.

According to the statement from Morris Brothers, Etheridge was in prison twice. The first time was for obtaining money under false pretenses, and the second time was for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Widow to Administer Fred King's Estate
Superior Judge E. C. Robinson has appointed Mrs. Harel H. King, widow of Fred L. King, Berkeley capitalist, who died December 11 last, administratrix of his estate. There was no will. It was testified that King left $100,000 in stocks, $18,130 in cash and income from other sources of $830 a year. The property will go to Mrs. King and two children, aged 5 and 3. Mrs. King was granted a family allowance of $500 a month. Her bond was fixed at $235,000, but Judge Robinson granted permission to deposit the stock with the San Francisco branch of the Mercantile Trust Company, in which case the bond will be reduced to $10,000.

COUNTRESS GIVEN 2-YEAR SENTENCE FOR CONSPIRACY

DUBLIN, Dec. 28.—Countess Georgina Markievicz, who was tried by a court-martial on a charge of conspiracy to organize a seditious society, was today sentenced to two years at hard labor in prison. The specific allegation against her was that between January, 1918, and September, 1919, she had plotted to organize a "fianna eireann" or "Sinn Finn" boy scouts society. This organization has been charged with the conspiracy to murder military police, and with unlawful drilling.

By DANIEL O'CONNELL
International News Service Staff Correspondent.
DUBLIN, Dec. 28.—Twelve persons have been killed and nineteen wounded in Irish violence since Christmas, according to official figures revealed here today. One of the civilians killed was a woman. The total score:
Civilians—Killed, 11; wounded, 17. Policemen—Killed, 1; wounded, 2. It develops that one of the five Sinn Feiners killed in the battle at Bruff, County Limerick, when soldiers raided a dance, was commandant of the local branch of the Irish republican army. Two civilians who were wounded in that fight are reported to be dying. One policeman was killed by the civilians.
A farmer was killed in County Tyrone by a band of armed and masked men who were raiding farms. Two civilians—Maurice Reidy and John Leen—were shot to death at Ballinadwyer.
James Hickey, a prisoner, was shot and killed in a struggle with his guards at Tipperary.
A woman was killed at Limerick. Two large clothing stores were burned in the business district of Tipperary.
The Irish jails are so full of prisoners that many arrested persons are being sent to Welsh jails.

Livestock Breeding Will Enrich Nation
VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 28.—Simon Fraser Tolmie, Canadian Minister of Agriculture, in an address here, cited impressive figures to show how farmers by breeding improved livestock can increase the national wealth.
"There are 3,500,000 cows in Canada averaging 4,000 pounds of milk each a year," said Dr. Tolmie. "A Fraser Valley cow recently finished a year's test in which she produced 32,000 pounds, or eight times the Canadian average. That means one-eighth of the barn space, one-eighth of the channelland service, one-eighth of the feed. It means that one man got $1,000 for his milk and a $1,000 calf while the man with eight average cows finished about where he began, except that he had got lots of exercise and fresh air. If we could produce 1,000 pounds per cow in Canada from 1,000 pounds per cow in the United States, this can be done by the introduction of pure blood. It would mean an annual addition to the national wealth of $211,000,000." Dr. Tolmie said there are 41,000,000 hens in the Dominion, and if each hen, by scientific methods, could be brought to lay just twelve more eggs a year, this dozen of eggs to a hen would mean $13,000,000 a year in the farmers' pockets.

Pioneer Couple Celebrates Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson Came to California in '62; Saw Indian Fighting

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson 1620 Oxford street, Berkeley, California, yesterday celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding. The Petersons were married in Indiana in 1860 and crossed the plains in 1862. Mrs. Peterson going with the party on horseback with a three weeks' old baby. This child is Charles Peterson, now a rancher and cattleman of Oregon. The Petersons landed in the fall of '62 in Plumas county after a six months' strenuous trip. Mr. Peterson tells of spending his last 50 cents to purchase some peaches from a peddler, but when the peddler poured the peaches into Mr. Peterson's hat the crown dropped out and the peddler returned the four-bit piece, telling Mr. Peterson that he needed money worse than the peddler did.
In 1864 the Petersons migrated to Modoc county, where they were the first settlers of Surprise Valley, now a very beautiful district. Peterson's ranch, known as the Peterson Land and Live Stock Company, is one of the most prosperous in that part of California.
In 1866 there was an Indian uprising in Modoc county and one night the Petersons' cabin was attacked by the Indians. They were fortunate in having two firing arms, so that Mr. Peterson was able to stand off the Indians with rifle fire while Mrs. Peterson kept the guns loaded. The Petersons had nine children, seven of whom are living, 26 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. The coincidence of this happy anniversary is that it was also the eighth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Webber. Mrs. Webber is a granddaughter of the Petersons, her husband and his mother were shot and killed in a hotel room here. His slayer escaped.

Harding Relative Tells of History
SANTA ANA, Cal., Dec. 28.—John Harding of Devonshire, England, who lived in 1447, is among the ancestors of President-elect Harding, according to genealogical studies made by Dick Foye Harding, of this city, a well-known attorney, as well as a cousin of the newly-elected head of the nation.
"The Hardings have always been pastoral people, coming over in the Mayflower days and settling in Braintree, Mass., now the city of Boston," said Dr. F. Harding, a grandson of the President-elect, who lived in Santa Ana for the past thirteen years. His father came to California in the gold days of '49. He is going to leave the middle of February for Ohio and then go to Washington to see his cousin inaugurated.

Edison Phonograph Works Close Tonight
WEST ORANGE, N. J., Dec. 28.—The phonograph works of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., will close tonight and will remain closed indefinitely it was announced today. The record department will not be affected.
"General business conditions" throughout the country were given by company officials as the reason for the closing, which affects 800 employees.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 28.—Wages of common laborers here will be reduced 7 1/2 to 10 cents an hour January 1, the Building Trades association announced today.
300 VESSELS TIED UP
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—About 200 Shipping Board vessels are tied up for lack of business, Chairman Benson said, but most of them are small lake type steamers. The present shipping situation is undeniably unsatisfactory, the chairman said, but the Government's conditions compare favorably with that of the private owners.

Abe Martin
There's a whole lot o' people in this country that don't care whether a shop is open or closed as long as it keeps running. 'Tis wife that used to drive her husband t' drink now leads him to it.

BIG WATCH NIGHT SERVICES PLANNED

A committee composed of Rev. F. M. Silsley, Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, Rev. F. J. Van Horn, Rev. John Stephens and Rev. John Snape are completing arrangements for a watch night service for New Year's eve. All of the downtown churches represented by these pastors, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A. and many of the evangelical churches of the outlying districts of Oakland will unite in this service for which an extensive program is being prepared. The principal speaker will be Bishop Anna Wright Leary. A large chorus choir, which will sing in the Union Evangelistic meetings, starting January 2, will render a program of songs. Otis D. Ironmunger, the choir leader associated with John E. Brown, evangelist, will lead the singing and will also sing one of the Gospel solos. An orchestra is being organized at the Y. M. C. A. and will probably play New Year's eve at the watch night service. There are other interesting features, including the newly organized Tabernacle male quartette.
Announcement of the hour and place of meeting will be made later.

Mrs. Glyn Delights Audience at S. F.
AUDIENCE AT S. F.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—"Be lovely and have an aim in life," Elizabeth Glyn, English author who has made the pulpit shudder, old-fashioned and the smart set all prepared for shocks yesterday at the St. Francis. "Be sweet and do not go about demanding things, and men will give you anything you want," she cooed. Mrs. Glyn did not altogether approve of American women, their aims and habits. She expressed little sympathy with "women's rights."
The widely known novelist whose hectic romances have shocked the English speaking world, appeared under the auspices of the University Fine Arts Society. The smart set thronged to hear her. The audience found its greatest thrill in the conventional views of the unconventional writer. Exits of many from the ballroom before the close of the lecture was noted.
"The Lucian Dialogues About Love" was the subject which was announced.

CANDY GRANDPA DIES
WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 28.—Andrew Miles Fleming, known in Los Angeles, Cal., his home as "The Candy Grandpa," because for thirty years he had made a daily practice of distributing candy to the poor children, died here yesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. J. Webster. Death was due to heart disease. He was 83 years old.

The Store That Saves For You

WHITTHORNE & SWAN, WASHINGTON STREET AT ELEVENTH

The Store That Saves For You

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

By ADELE GARRISON

Why Lillian Demanded a Certain Answer from Alice.

"My thorny sweet rose," Kenneth Stockbridge had written across the face of that photograph and had locked it away, as he supposed, safe from all human gaze. Yet Fate had willed that I should see it, and it was a certainty that poor Milly Stockbridge had found it the last day she came to the schoolhouse. That the discovery of her husband's love for Alice Holcombe was the thing which drove her to the frenzy which led to her death by her own hand or another's, I was sure. It seemed almost an impossibility that Alice herself should be in total ignorance of her old playmate's sentiments concerning her.

Lillian Reasons ALOUD.

"I think she suspected it," Alice Holcombe replied, "although Kenneth never by word or look gave her reason to do so. In fact I—I have often thought that he was kinder to her because he did not love her than he would have been to a woman he really cared for. He seemed to be on his guard constantly."

"Of course," Lillian asserted, absently, as if her thoughts were elsewhere. "Mrs. Graham tells me that she had been sent to a sanitarium by her people several times. That would strongly indicate insanity, in my opinion, if not developed. Did you ever know whether at those times she was angry at her husband, revengeful against him or cherished the idea of marrying him?"

"Both," Alice Holcombe returned. "Her whole idea seemed to be to hurt herself in some way and to blame him for it. She was always declaring that he kicked her or struck her, and she would show the bruises to prove her statement. Then afterward she would weep, beg his pardon before everybody, and show clearly without any doubt that she had been lying. And now—her people are using those very incidents, distorting them against Kenneth."

"ONE MORE QUESTION."

"Ah!" the exclamation breathed by Lillian was so low that I hardly heard it. As I glanced at her her eyes were glittering pin points, the hide narrowed as I had seen them only when she was ferreting out a difficult trail.

"Did she ever tell you these things and afterward confess the falsehood?" she asked presently.

"Often," Alice Holcombe replied. "You can remember them distinctly, could swear to them if necessary?"

"Yes—but oh—will I have to?" She stopped, threw up her head bravely.

"Please forgive my weakness," she said. "I—I am not quite myself. Of course I will do anything that is necessary."

"That is better," Lillian said gravely, for across her face had crept a tinge of the disdain she feels for faltering. "And it is more than probable that you will never have to appear in court. Now, one question more, and we can turn our attention to a more important subject. Do you know what happened to Mrs. Stockbridge had with poison?"

"She knew all about them," Alice Holcombe replied. "Her uncle is a druggist, and she helped in the store when a girl. But she attempted to poison Kenneth and herself on one occasion, and they have carefully guarded her access to poisons ever since. Kenneth kept his photographic stuff in an iron-bound chest, padlocked, and she was never allowed alone in her uncle's establishment. Another relative is a physician, and he warned his fellow practitioners in the neighboring villages, so that she could get no prescription with poison in it anywhere."

"Nice asinine stunt of your friend keeping photographic stuff in the house with her if he had it guarded by twenty iron-bound boxes," Lillian commented. "It's the only ugly thing in this whole business. But let's forget all these troublesome questions—you've been a brick, Miss Holcombe, and I thank you—and turn our attention to Mr. Jake Wilsey, alias George Bridgeham, alias John Hambridge."

I saw Alice Holcombe start, and her eyes mirror a look of fear as Lillian drawled out the various aliases of the man who had called himself John Hambridge and told her that Kenneth Stockbridge had confessed to the murder of his wife.

"Has he been?" Alice Holcombe asked.

Lillian answered her eyes rather than her words.

"He can do no more harm," she said promptly. "I have that here," she tapped her forehead grimly, "that will turn Mr. Bridgeham—Hambridge—Wilsey into the most whimpering yellow cur that ever begged for mercy. But I've got to get hold of him first, and that is where you can help me."

Again Alice Holcombe looked at her steadily.

"I am ready for anything," she said.

"It won't be much of a task," Lillian replied reassuringly. "You'll simply have to play a waiting game for a few days and be always ready to leave anything at a moment's notice and come to us at Marvin."

She relaxed into a comfortable attitude with her hands loosely clasped on the table in front of her—a pose which told me that Lillian had attained the main object of her expedition, and that all the rest was merely a matter of detail, and said:

"You see, it's a cinch, lead-pipe, that he will make one more attempt to frighten out of you girls what he thinks you know. I'm practically certain that without the knowledge of those telephone conversations so damning to Mr. Stockbridge, of which Madge alone knows the truth, they will be unable to connect up their case—of course, they can't put those in evidence, but they would be of incalculable value to the prosecution, notwithstanding. So it will be our little job to see that they don't get them. And when I get through with Mr. Jake Wilsey, I hope that our own stock of information will be materially increased.

"I haven't the slightest idea, of course, which one of you he will tackle first," Lillian went on speculatively after a minute's pause, "but if he tries to see you, Miss Holcombe, please register all the shrinking panic you can assume."

LILLIAN'S PLAN.

"I shan't have to assume anything," Alice Holcombe retorted grimly, in the first flash of her old manner I had seen. "The panic will be perfectly real. I can assure you, but I'll do anything you say."

"The more realistic the better," Lillian said. "Do or say anything you please, but get him over to our place upon the pretext of your wishing to see Madge, and let us know in some way that you're on the road. Is there any one in your house that you can trust to telephone us as soon as you have started."

"No one in the house knows anything about this man, so I think I could give my mother a message to phone you which would tell her nothing and you everything."

CANADA A COMPETITOR.

Over one month ago THE TRIBUNE, in commenting upon the attempted conspiracy of the wheat growers to withhold their grain from the domestic markets until they could get $3 a bushel for it, called attention to the fact that Canadian wheat would be sent into this country at considerably less than $3 per bushel; that even Australian and Argentine wheat would compete with the American growers who were plotting to maintain the high cost of living. The result of this, it was foretold, would be failure for the American growers and the infliction of a greater loss than would be necessary should they sell at once.

On December 14—two weeks later—Senator McCumber of North Dakota was pleading the cause of the American wheat growers and urging the prohibition of wheat imports. He told the Senate that measures contemplated for the relief of domestic wheat had little prospect of success if the importation of Canadian wheat continued. Then he gave these facts:

"Since December 1 the shipments have been remarkable. Within 24 hours 15 vessels laden with wheat left Fort William, Ontario, for United States ports.

"In political circles in Ottawa there is no surprise at the unprecedented shipments. It is stated that more than twenty times as much wheat has been sent from Fort William and Port Arthur, the principal Canadian points of shipment, to the United States, than was sent last year.

"Reports a few days since indicate over 72,555,000 bushels of wheat received at elevators at Fort William and Port Arthur; 45,420,000 bushels have been shipped to the United States, and it is prophesied that there will be considerable in addition to this.

"The 45,000,000 bushels already dispatched to Buffalo or other southern ports take no account of the enormous shipments that have gone forward since December 3, up to which date the records were available. Five million bushels still can be placed aboard vessels now lying in harbor, and before navigation closes Canada will have sent to the United States ports, through elevators here, about 56,000,000 bushels of wheat."

Senator McCumber showed grave concern over the wheat situation. He said the 1920 wheat crop was about 750,000,000; that 650,000,000 would be required for domestic demands for bread and seed, and 100,000,000 would remain for export, but that if this country must take care of 200,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat the situation would be greatly complicated. The Senator was both incorrect and negligent in his figures. The 1920 wheat crop, according to final estimates, is about 788,000,000 bushels, to which there must be added a hold-over from last year's crop of about 120,000,000 bushels. So that instead of having a surplus of 100,000,000 bushels for export and hold-over there is about 258,000,000 bushels surplus wheat.

But Canadian imports are not stopping the export of wheat. Considerable quantities of United States wheat now is being exported to Europe. That Canadian imports are embarrassing the domestic situation, however, just as THE TRIBUNE foretold, cannot be denied. But an embargo against imports is not the correct device.

American wheat growers are entitled to a fair price, one that will yield a reasonable profit, but the American consumer also is entitled to some of the benefits of the law of supply and demand. Instead of an embargo there might be a small tariff on wheat imports. That could be devised so as to insure the American grower against financial loss on a well-managed wheat farm and at the same time safeguard the consumer against extortionate profiteers in food staples.

ASIA IN THE LEAGUE.

Among the acts of the meeting of the League of Nations Assembly at Geneva was the election of China to the Council of the League. This is the high governing body of the League, and, according to President Wilson, it was the idea of those who drafted the League covenant that it would do all the important work, while the Assembly would be merely a "debating society." The election of China to a place on the Council, therefore is to be considered a considerable gain in Chinese prestige in this international association. It was provided in the League covenant that the four great Allied powers—Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan—and the United States should be permanent members of the Council and four other powers were named provisionally until the Assembly could meet to make permanent selection. Belgium, Brazil, Spain and Greece were temporarily appointed by the chief framers of the League. The Assembly at its Geneva meeting elected the first three named, but chose China to take the place of Greece.

It is to be noted that, due to the abstention of the United States from the League, the Western Hemisphere has only one representative on the Council, Brazil, while Asia has two representatives—Japan and China. The only two large independent Asiatic states are represented, while practically all the rest of Asia, Australasia and Africa is represented through Great Britain or France.

There was a noticeable display at Geneva of the feeling among the smaller nations of Europe that Asia should not have two members on the League Council so long as the Scandinavian group was not represented at all. Presumably the Council will be enlarged when all the Teutonic peoples, including Germany, are admitted, to make room for Germany. But for the present Asia certainly has no cause for complaint.

China has gained a position, however, which will please her well-wishers in the unending controversy with Japan. She will be in a position to press directly her causes before the supreme body and it may be taken for granted that she will omit no opportunity. She will be able to speak directly and frankly to her associates concerning the confirmation of Japan's grab of Shantung.

CONTRASTS.

Before the great war started in 1914 the only railroad operating in Mesopotamia was the small section of the Bagdad Railway running from Bagdad north to Samarra, about eighty miles. During the war several lines were built for military purposes, aggregating 1100 miles. At present 937 miles of these railways have been turned over to the civil administration for commercial purposes and the remainder taken up.

The line from Bassorah to Bagdad was opened up to traffic last January and it is now possible to go from Bassorah to Bagdad in twenty-two hours by a comfortable train instead of the long voyage by river steamer. The line running from Bagdad to the Persian frontier at Quarat is open and transporting much freight. British engineers are now at work surveying the railroad on to Teheran via Kermanshah and Hamadan. The Persian gulf will thus soon be linked up with the capital of Persia by railway via Bagdad.

As a result of these new rail facilities freights on imports have already been materially reduced in Mesopotamia and Persia. And the people of Mesopotamia have purchased from abroad more merchandise than ever before in their history. Among the larger items are $47,000,000 of cotton fabrics produced in English mills and $8,000,000 of sugar obtained through British factors. Both cotton and sugar was carried in British ships.

A noteworthy transformation is taking place in Mesopotamia. Ancient canals have been reopened and new ones built for irrigation purposes. Engineering works are now in course of construction for the complete control and conservation of the flood waters of the Euphrates and Tigris rivers. Transportation is being made safer, quicker and more economical. Cultivation of the soil is being revived and plans for cotton growing on a large scale are now in the process of execution. Presently Persia, the large interior country reaching to the Russian frontier and the Caspian sea, will come to a new life. It is a rich country in oil, minerals, wool and potentially, under modern irrigation methods, in agriculture.

Great Britain, who has taken this area as a sphere of her influence, is developing a large market in Persia and Mesopotamia. The Persian gulf will soon become a busy sea of commerce carrying. The railways and the water projects, the grain and cotton-growing schemes that were started during the war, first and specifically for military purposes, are being applied to good use in time of peace. There has been no hesitancy, no doubt about the right thing to do. Railways were built to transport the Indian and Arabian forces to fight against the Turks and Germans; water reservoirs and canals were built to fight the great enemy of any army in the country—thirst. They are of value now.

During the war the United States built a great merchant marine. It was expected to know what to do with it after peace ensued. But still there is no policy for the operation or disposition of the merchant marine. Splendid 10,000-ton ships are idle on the beach at Martinez, but there is no line of ships running to the Persian gulf to capture a share of the maritime trade of Persia, Mesopotamia and Arabia. A steamer calling there every month or every two months would provide facilities for American manufactures to bid for a share of the trade of that district.

Five hundred Russians who sympathize with the soviet regime of Moscow desire to leave their homes in or near Los Angeles and return to Russia. They have made one request for safe passage out of the country and they should not have to make the second.

Fortunately, not all those mentioned will find a place in the next cabinet.

NOTES and COMMENT

The third gangster to be placed on trial is reputed to have a fat bank account, but refuses to brouch it for counsel, requiring the judge to appoint one for his defense. The jury may see its way to shorten the eleven minutes consumed in agreeing on a verdict in the last case. To the other inadmirable traits this one seems to add that of money meanness.

Caruso is suffering again, and it seems to be probable that he is drifting along to that period where physical ailments assail. It is the ultimate of all men, however they may have performed and achieved. Caruso has had a great run for his money, if it might be put in that way, and it is possible that he has been going for some time on momentum.

Somewhere has thought to compare the words "position" and "job." It seems that "position" was recently preferable up to the time that everybody found that he couldn't light out exactly the kind of work that he fancied at his own schedule of wages; and now "job" is current again. Nothing herein contained is to be construed as referring to the rural young person who, time out of mind, has "accepted" positions in his vocation, instead of being taken on.

The operations of the Shipping Board are represented to have kept a billion dollars in this country. That much that has passed through the board's hands may be here, but the public is not satisfied from the disclosure that several other billions that have been spent through that agency remain in the country or anywhere else.

The need of basic reform in court procedure is more than suggested in the fact that the effort to convict the woman Clark of murdering her husband will cost $6000, notwithstanding the fact that she has signed three confessions. The trial has consumed twenty-five trial days, and has already cost $5000.

The prediction of Professor Weber of the State University, that horses are coming back, appears to be founded on deep reasoning—so deep that the pedestrian who finds it dangerous to cross streets on account of the swift succession of automobiles experiences difficulty in following it. But it may be the gasoline supply will give out and no substitute be discovered, so that it will be necessary to return in some degree to antiquated means of vehicle propulsion. However, the world has never yet taken a back track like that.

The Skull and Keys incident is not closed, apparently. Or if it is, it is being reopened. There is seriousness at the university over the defeat of Amendment 12, and a college publication is making a play of the Skull and Keys incident, which was timed unfortunately so near the election. If the incident shall serve to subdue such exuberance in the future, something at least will have been gained.

Some of the police statistics is interesting. The arrests for drunkenness have decreased one-half in four years, but those of speed violations have tripled in the same time. People have got to have speed of some kind, it would seem. If booze is debarrad as the motive power, then gasoline.

Something new again. Real estate brokers must carry their licenses in their pockets during the coming year. It is so decreed by the State commissioner. This marks another remove from the days when the person who essayed to do something didn't feel a strain which pulled him up short when he tried to do it except in a statutory way.

In the account of a bride of three days wandering in a subconscious condition and fetching up in the Receiving Hospital, her husband elucidated by stating that she had been suffering from melancholia for three days. Generally a wedding does not return adverse results as promptly as that.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

The chief of police at Sacramento has received letters from "Texas Kid," "Rambling Rover" and other tourists informing him that they would soon visit his city and requesting that reservations be made for them in the history of which the chief is manager. Chief Sydenham is understood to have given these messengers his usual courteous attention, and the most desirable cells in his jail will be in readiness for the visitors. An interesting feature of this incident is that the prospective guests wrote that their address was Bakersfield. — Bakersfield Californian.

Certain tribes of American Indians had a most effective procedure against braves guilty of assault against Indian girlhood. When found guilty, the prisoner would be marched off to a distant point by a few comrades. Later only the comrades would return. Punishment was so summary that assaults against Indian girls were so rare as almost to be forgotten. We have something to learn from Indians.—Hanford Sentinel.

The Grady bank's suspension was due to the acceptance of too much rice paper, according to bankers, and the bad weather of the last few weeks made this paper, in many instances, collateral of very little value. According to President Schafer, the rice men who borrowed from the bank will take up the paper at the first opportunity, but at present this is impossible for them. — Chicago Enterprise.

The necessity for concentrating both the academic and practical branches of the course at Davis long has been plain. The proposal to purchase $750,000 worth of residence property in Berkeley would be a big step in the wrong direction. — Sacramento Bee.

DREAM-TOWN SHOW

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

There is an wheel in Slumber Sea. Where the drollest things are done, And we will sail there if the winds are fair. Just after the set of the sun, 'Tis the loveliest place in the whole wide world. Or, anyway, so it seems. And the folks there play at the end of each day In a curious show called Dreams.

We sail right into the evening skies, And the very first thing we know, We are there at the port and ready for sport. Where the dream folks give their show. And what do you think they did last night? They hoisted a plank on a great cloud bank And tattered among the stars.

And they sat on the moon and swung their feet Like pendulums to and fro; Down Slumber Sea is the sail for me, And I wish you were ready to go. For the dream folks there on this curious isle Begin their performance at eight. There are no encores, and they close their doors. On every one who is late.

The sun is sinking behind the hills. The seven o'clock bells chime. I know by the chart that we ought to start. If we would be there in time. O fair is the trip down Slumber Sea. Set sail and away we go: The anchor is drawn, we are off and gone. To the wonderful Dream-town show. — Good Housekeeping for January.

COURTSHIP BY STATUTE? Judge Buckner's view that the law should fix the length of courtship as a measure against the divorce evil, shows a belief in the efficacy of law highly commendable in a judge, but whether such a law would make for more successful marriages is a point on which lay opinion probably would want to save an exception. Hasty marriages may be unwise and no doubt frequently are followed, as Judge Buckner has found, by disillusion, misunderstanding and divorce. But there is another aspect to the question. If couples became too well acquainted before marriage they probably wouldn't marry at all. That would be a pretty nice point of law to determine. It would have to say what the period should be in which a couple might become well enough acquainted to tolerate each other's faults, without finding out faults they couldn't tolerate. Have our lawmakers exhibited enough wisdom in other affairs to lead us to believe they could fix courtships with that exactitude? — Kansas City Star.

THE JESTER

The Tip-Hunter's Guide.

Speaking of tips and tipping, a New York bellhop not long ago formulated a set of rules, a few of which we give below: Don't waste time on "big bugs." Shower attention on women; if they tip at all, they tip liberally. Don't persecute lightweights; swindle them with faultless service. Play the honeymooners hard; newly-wed men like to make a splurge before their wives. Don't act ugly when a guest departs without tipping you. Have a heart! Perhaps the office cleaned him out.—Boston Transcript.

Wouldn't Be All at Sea. "But suppose," they said to him, "this bill you are so keen about should cause your party to throw you overboard?" "Well, in that case," the young politician responded, "I'm quite sure I'd have strength enough to swim across to the other side."—Exchange.

About YOUR HEALTH

Why Catarrhal Deafness May Be Traced to "a Cold"

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., F. A. C. S., Commissioner of Health, N. Y. City

Neglect of nasal symptoms in babyhood or childhood is the history of most cases of adult deafness. With lack of nasal cleanliness has come the development of adenoids. These in turn have closed the Eustachian tubes—the passages leading from the nose to the ears and intended to give air and drainage to the middle ear. Gradually the catarrhal condition has shown itself by a thickening of the mucous lining of these tubes and of both ears. The drums have then become thickened, the joints of the little bones have stiffened, and, gradually but surely, the acuteness of hearing has disappeared.

All these stages in the progress of catarrhal deafness should be warnings to each of us against neglect of nasal symptoms.

A cold should not be permitted to "hang on." If it doesn't respond to treatment as it should, something is wrong. Nasal discharge should not persist. If it does, see your doctor at once.

As a matter of fact, colds should not be neglected. They deserve attention and serious treatment. Many a deaf man can trace his deafness back to a neglected cold in early life.

Douches are unsafe to use as means of cleansing the nose. An atomizer may be used with advantage. It matters little which of many suitable solutions is used. Any one of the many pleasantly flavored solutions on the market may be employed. Spray the nose thoroughly and then very gently, blow out the secretion. This should be done two or three times a day.

In acute conditions argyrol or any one of the colloidal silver preparations may be applied on cotton to the nasal passages.

When deafness is actually present, it requires the attention of the ear doctor. He has ways of opening the closed Eustachian tubes and of massaging the stiffened ear tissues.

The question of climate is frequently raised in discussing deafness. If one has the so-called "dry catarrh," he is better off at sea level or in any other moist climate than he would be elsewhere.

In catarrhal conditions where there is a chronic abundance of mucous secretion, dry climates, like North Carolina, Arizona, Minnesota or any mountainous district may be helpful. On general principles, however, I believe that treatment by a good aurist or in a first-class dispensary is more likely to prove beneficial than removal to another climate. Deafness is rarely benefited directly by such a change. If poor health is the basis of the trouble, a change of residence may improve the health and thus improve the hearing.

RADICAL CHANGES IN CONTROL OF SCHOOLS PLANNED

Multiple Boards and Attorneys
Would Be Abolished to Reduce Expenses

By AD B. SCHUSTER
TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, Dec. 28.—The most revolutionary school measure ever to be put before California lawmakers and one which will ask the elimination of a dozen different boards and more than a score of high-salaried officers, will be presented to the Legislature which meets here next week. The bill outdoes the recommendations of the Boynton committee on economy and efficiency, would reorganize completely the State Board of Education, and would abolish not only the boards of trustees of the eight normal schools, the Polytechnic school, and the School for the Deaf and Blind at Berkeley, but would bring under the control of the Board of Education those institutions which have to do with the education of the feeble-minded and the delinquent. At one stroke it would wipe out the boards at Fresno, Whittier, the California School for Girls and the State hospital and homes for the feeble-minded. Along with those slated for retirement, under the present plan of the bill would be the attorneys for the various boards and commissions.

WARM FIGHT EXPECTED

There is a great deal of secrecy being maintained about this measure and there is a reason. It is expected to be one of the big guns in the fight that is to be waged for a more economical State government, for a radical change in control of the school heads and for a general lopping off of salaries of officials. The proponents are of course aware that such things have been tried before and they know that similar machinery to that which they are offering has never been allowed to operate. To the end of effectiveness they have been rounding up support here and there in the State, have the promise of delegations and individuals from various sections and are seeking to marshal a full strength before they show their numbers. The most enthusiastic of them hint that Governor Stephens will surprise the Legislature and the State with a most emphatic endorsement of the scheme.

BOYNTON REPORT DETAILS

This report, which was considered far-reaching, recommends that there be created a Department of Education to be governed by the State Board of Education, consisting of five lay members and one superintendent of public instruction be its chief executive officer. It also recommends that the functions now exercised by the board of trustees of the normal schools, the California Polytechnic school, and the State School for the Deaf and Blind at Berkeley be performed under the supervision of the State Board of Education. The bill also appoints the president of each of the normal schools and the principal of each of the special schools. A local board of trustees, to act in advisory capacity

Hey, Boys! Loosen Your Belts Here's a Feast on Doughnuts

Oakland Newsies To Banquet Saturday

"A Doughnut Feast" given over "Doughnuts and everything." That cry, shouted in youthful enthusiasm, will serve as a magnet for Oakland newsies. New Year's morning, when, as hosts of the Tribune and the Superior Doughnut company will be given every opportunity to demonstrate the capacity of their "tummies."

The occasion will be the doughnut party, which will be given at the Superior Doughnut company, 1020 Broadway street and San Pablo avenue, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and more than 700 street newsies are expected to attend the event, where they will be given a chance to consume as many doughnuts as possible, out from the company's oven.

And not only that, if he can outdo some of his friends, and can away with more of the delicacies than they are capable of, he will have a chance to win a prize. For the Tribune will not only give away all the doughnuts they can eat, but will conduct a doughnut eating contest as well.

Prizes will be awarded to the five newsies who eat the most doughnuts. The prizes and judges will be announced later.

A doughnut machine, which will and to serve without compensations, is recommended for each institution.

FINANCE COMES FIRST

As the reorganization question cannot come up until after Congress has reappointed the congressional districts in the State, the financing problem looms in matters of importance to come before the session. Faced with a $10,000,000 deficit and the prospect of ad valorem or luxury taxes the advocates of the school bill have been of other pruning and centralizing measures profess to see a chance for winning out.

The taxation and revenue committee, appointed by the 1919 Legislature, to study the State's financial system and report to the coming session, has not yet completed its recommendations and is yet to make an announcement of the outline of its report. According to word that has reached here from Senator Lyman King, its chairman, the committee will meet during the first week of the session. There is talk of a tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline being included in the recommendations, a tax which is estimated would bring in $12,000,000 annually and the committee has had suggestions of personal income taxes, taxes on manufacturing incomes, increased taxes for public utility corporations, general property tax and taxing co-partnerships.

Those who are holding out for the saving by cutting expense say that the Los Angeles delegation will present a number of measures to that end, that the California Taxpayers' Association of San Francisco is backing them, that they have enough support pledged at least to assure that the question will be put to a test that will be both acute and revealing.

CITY ATTORNEYS TO MEET ROLPH

City attorneys of the bay cities that would be affected by a ferry strike have been requested by Mayor Rolph of San Francisco to meet in conference for the purpose of a joint discussion of the legal phases that are involved in the transcript of the statement made by the railroad officials and their ferry boat employees, relative to the threatened strike.

War Is On Against Lumber in Gutters

The Tuesday morning meeting of officials of the street department was called off this morning in order to campaign through the city's residence districts, where wooden car entrances to garages were ruthlessly ordered taken out of the gutters. This notice, he said, had been given to the companies and becomes operative on Monday, January 2.

Bomb Exploded in Suburb of Detroit

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 28.—Residents of Ford City were thrown into a panic today when a large quantity of gun powder and bolts, nuts and scale weights, placed in the doorway of a store at Second and Davis streets, exploded. The force of the explosion shook houses for two miles around. Damage to the building is estimated at $2000.

Funeral Services For Pastor Are Held

Funeral services for Rev. William D. MacDonald, assistant pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, who died Sunday night, were held at Plymouth church this afternoon. Dr. Charles L. Kloss, the pastor, officiated and paid tribute to his late assistant.

CARUSO IS RECOVERING

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The robust constitution of the premier opera singer was triumphing over pleurisy today, physicians attending Enrico Caruso announced. "Mr. Caruso is doing nicely," they said.

PLANS TO THWART RICHMOND'S RAIL ORDER OUTLINED

State Engineer Proposes New
S. P. Santa Fe Switch
Outside City Limits

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Adequate facilities exist for the temporary routing of Santa Fe trains over the tracks of the Southern Pacific company at a point a short distance out of Richmond, according to testimony submitted today at a hearing before the State Railroad Commission into the proposed plan whereby the Santa Fe company has been and would continue using the Oakland and Richmond points near Richmond, making possible the temporary use by the Santa Fe of the Southern Pacific tracks.

NEW SWITCH PROPOSED

L. R. Kessler, an assistant engineer of the State Railroad Commission, submitted detailed maps and data supplementary to his testimony that in his better facilities still exist connecting the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific tracks at a point near Richmond, making possible the temporary use by the Santa Fe of the Southern Pacific tracks.

He also pointed out whereby the line would suffer less inconvenience by merely reversing the angle of the present connecting tracks. He said he was not prepared at this time to state to what extent the statement made by the railroad officials and their ferry boat employees, relative to the threatened strike.

RICHMOND ON WARPATH

D. W. Hall, city attorney of Richmond, said the city council of that city is prepared to remove the connecting tracks between the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific lines next week, pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Richmond city council last night. Hall contended that the track transfer facilities now in effect had been created by the Richmond city council under a resolution which specified that the companies could on thirty days' notice, be ordered to discontinue their use of the tracks.

President Ordered Cable Laying Halt

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Interference with the laying of the Western Union cable connection in Manila was upon direct orders from President Wilson, according to dispatches today in the Sun. The cable officers admit interference in their answers. They charge that the cable connection sought would establish a British monopoly, the action was taken under direct orders from the President.

Cable Incident Is Closed, Capital Says

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The incident arising from the British embassy's direct communication with Senator Kellogg, denying British interference with American cable messages, is "practically closed," officials of the state department said today.

BROLASKI WILL NOT FLEE FROM U. S., SILVA TOLD

Attorney for the Convicted "Master Mind" Would Save Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Harry Brolaski, master mind of San Francisco's "red" flour tin, convicted recently on a charge of conspiring to violate the Volstead prohibition act, is not out of the country, he is in San Diego, and will appear whenever he is wanted by the court.

TELEPHONED BROLASKI

Attorney Philip Ehrlich informed the United States attorney's office that he was in telephone communication with Brolaski at San Diego, where he is at present. He said the latter is registered and stopping at the Hotel S. Grant. Ehrlich said he informed Brolaski that his reported visit to San Diego and subsequent trip across the line to Tijuana, has provoked some concern and considerable discussion in federal circles, and advised him not again to cross the border. Ehrlich said he did not believe that in view of the situation, Brolaski will again visit Tijuana, where it is presumed he went to place bets, particularly in that Brolaski is reported to have a string of horses running at Tijuana.

Dove of Peace Not Entered Yet at Rival Pigeon Shows

There's a row a-brewing over the two rival pigeon and rabbit shows which have rented the auditorium for different dates during the month of January.

NO PREMIUMS

Officials of the first show that is to be given by the California association, say that it is not intended to show pigeons in the show, and that no premiums are offered pigeon exhibitors. In this way they refute the charge made by the press agent of the National Pigeon Show that the California association show is "stealing the thunder of the big national show and convention."

Fred Anton, president of the California association, says that his association's show has been planned for months, and that it is not being held to detract from the glory of the pigeon show.

SIMILAR CHARGES

Similar charges are hurled back at the California association by the Western association, which is holding a rabbit show at the same time. The Western association show is a "spite show," and say that show intends to show pigeons calling it a "national" pigeon show under cover of their "national" rabbit exhibition.

REFUSED TO SHOW

"We refused to do that. The Western association is out of its mind," said Anton today. "We could not show with them. It is against the national rules."

WOMEN WIELD ORATORY, VASE IN HOME DISPUTE

Lull in Quarrel Follows the Presence of Policeman
On Premises

BERKELEY, Dec. 28.—With Mrs. Oliver Cromwell, valiantly holding her house at 150 Julia street, will Mrs. M. Richardson, nurse at the Alameda County hospital and owner of the property, consulting Judge Edgar as to her rights; and Patrolman H. T. Lee assigned to the role of mediator and possible peacemaker; a lull has interrupted the quarrel between the two women.

The trouble began when Mrs. Richardson raised the monthly rent on the property from $25 to $45 according to the police. She then charged Mrs. Cromwell with having sold some of her furniture. While Mrs. Cromwell was absent from the house, Mrs. Richardson is alleged to have taken possession. The tenant returned to find herself locked out of the house.

Cure Impossible; Youth Kills Self

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Because San Francisco specialists were able to give him no encouragement that a partial paralysis of his left side could be cured, a 19-year-old youth, who came here from his home in Tumalo yesterday to consult the physicians, shot and killed himself today in his room at a local hotel. His body was found by a brother, who he had summoned by telephone before shooting himself. A long letter to his parents explained his reason for suicide.

HER DAUGHTER NOT LIKE SAME PERSON

"Although it has been six months now since Tanlac relieved my daughter's suffering and built her up so wonderfully, she is still feeling fine," said Mrs. Mabel McGarvey, 840 East Sixth street, Los Angeles, recently. "My six-year-old daughter was in an awful state of health and her case seemed to puzzle everyone. As she was never able to find out exactly what her troubles were, 'Whatever they were, nothing helped her until she got Tanlac, and now she is just like a different person.' Now she is able to hold a good position down town and is well and strong her work doesn't bother her the least bit."

"For one thing, her stomach was all out of order. After meals she was afflicted of a terrible stuffed-up feeling and many nights
finally lost her appetite completely and could scarcely eat anything.
"Her nerves were in an awful condition, too, and many nights she slept very restless, and sat up in bed or walked thru most of the time. I spent many nights trying to relieve her suffering.
"Finally I sent her on a trip to Arizona, thinking this would help her but she came back worse than it was soon after this we began hearing so much about Tanlac and decided to try it out in her case. The first bottle helped her so much that "She is still in fine condition, eating heartily, sleeps peacefully, and never complains of any pain or distress. Tanlac certainly did wonderful work for her, and we are glad to tell about it publicly for the benefit of others who may need the medicine."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley by The Owl Drug Company Stores and Eberly's Quality Pharmacy, Alameda.—Advertisement.

OHIO STATE FOOTBALL COACH IS TRYING OUT NEW ATTACK

BERKELEY HIGH TACKLES BAKERSFIELD TOMORROW AFTERNOON FOR STATE HIGH SCHOOL TITLE

FIVE THOUSAND MORE SEATS ADDED TO THE PASADENA PLAYING LOT

Ohio's Aerial Attack Will Be Hard to Intercept as the Men Get Into Action Quickly

PASADENA, Dec. 28.—Beginning the last week of practice before the big New Year's East vs. West classic both the California and Ohio State coaches are driving their men hard. They realize the kind of a football game it is going to be and the players in the best condition will stand the better chance of winning. Both teams stepped around the gridiron at Tournament Park yesterday for an hour and a half. The methods adopted by both coaches were the same, the first part consisted of an hour's closed signal practice and the latter part in scrimmage. Both teams are well supplied with reserves for the scrimmage work and they are getting some real practice.

The Ohio athletes worked out early in the afternoon and although the practice showed nothing of importance some new plays were tried out by Dr. Wilce, the learned mentor. Dr. Wilce is becoming a bit worried over what California knows of the Ohio attack and the wants to pull something new in the big game. Practice from now until Friday will consist chiefly of new forms of attack and the well-known forward pass is expected to figure largely in the play.

Coch Wilce says he does not know how he will start in the big game. He thinks the Stinchcomb will be one of the stars but he would not come right out and admit this. Shifts were made frequently in the lineup yesterday and some of them may develop into surprises before the end of the week. Isabel, the substitute full back, now being used as an end on second down was worked out in that position yesterday. He is a whopper of a man and may be used in that position in the big game. Wilce is certain to appear at the end with New Workman and Baker competing with Isabel. The forward passing combination of the Wilce is a revelation. They have this end of the game down pat.

Dr. Wilce Gets Into Practice Himself
Meyers receives the ball much the same as California's Brick Muller. Ohio men leave their feet when they get the ball. This style of play is the run make interception difficult and few passes were blocked in scrimmage yesterday. Dr. Wilce got into the fray himself yesterday, playing half-back with Jack Hartley against the first team. He was used in that position in the game. The Bruins are able to make gains by using a running attack but they are not expected to have much luck with forward passes. Coach Smith stated after the practice that no lineup for the big game will be announced until Friday and then it would be subject to change any night.

Seating Capacity Of Park Is 45,000
Tickets for the game are very scarce at least a few fans had to be turned away from the gate. It is estimated that 5000 seats would be left at the field on the day of the game. The stadium was built in order to prevent the pastboards from falling into the hands of the fans. Five thousand extra seats have been added to the stadium. The new seats are on top of the stands. The stadium is now seating 45,000 and every seat will be taken on the day of the game. The stadium is now seating 45,000 and every seat will be taken on the day of the game. ### GOING TO FOOTBALL GAME VIA AUTO? VALLEY ROUTE IN BEST CONDITION

Slight Snow Fall Along the Ridge Route Will Not Cause Any Serious Inconvenience

By JIM HOUHAN
To the hundreds of motorists in the bay cities who will tour to Pasadena for the New Year's game the valley route is the best. It is shorter and, mile for mile, is in better condition than the Coast highway. Barring rain on Thursday and Friday along the path of travel, motor parties will not encounter any difficulties between Oakland and Los Angeles, though drivers will have to take precautions on narrow sections of concrete when they are forced to turn out for an oncoming wide bodied truck or other such type of vehicle because the dirt stretches adjoining the concrete have been deeply softened by December's rains that trouble may befall the pilot who hits this earth too quickly.

PICK YOUR ROUTE NOW.

Basket League BIG YEAR IN SPORTDOM MANY NEW STARS SHINE

By JACK VEIOCK, International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—In a few days the tide of time will sweep Nineteen-Twenty into the misty realm of things that have been. Years gone before have been rich in sport history. Years still to come will be studded with scintillating deeds by the world's athletes. Brilliant feats that are now fresh in the minds of sport devotees will no doubt be excelled. But Nineteen-Twenty will always stand out as the greatest twelfth-month sport has seen up to this time.

It took just a year following the close of the great World War for sport to find its former level. That was 1919. Then along came 1920 to find the whole world hungry for play and recreation, and every game or pastime in the sporting calendar was lifted to a higher level of popularity than ever before. World's records were sent crashing into the discard in many lines of sport during the year that is closing. The enormous interest of the sport-loving public in every competitive pastime was evinced by unprecedented crowds. Millions of people attended sports events all over the world. No red-blooded sport went begging for popularity.

Few Changes in Champions' Ranks During This Year
Mike O'Dowd and Pete Herman lost their titles in the year that is now drawing to a close, but there were few other upsets in the world of sport.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—National supervision of boxing by the International Sporting Club, may save boxing when other games have failed. The Walker boxing bill, which has allowed boxing to flourish in New York, brushed aside all the old stonies that made the rougher for boxing, but it overlooked a fallen tree across the path in the distance—corruption.

Central Oakland Merchants Defeat Woodmen, Score 7-3
The Central Oakland Merchants returned to their form by defeating the Woodmen 7 to 3 in an interesting game at the K. K. K. park. Andy Brown, the Central Oakland pitcher, was in fine trim and had the Woodmen almost out of the game. He allowed but four hits, one a double by Cohen. Fifteen strikeouts are credited to him. Something like that work they are due to make a lot of trouble for the balance of the season. The Central Oakland team is now in first place in the Class B league. Jerome, Vic Comey and Cook were the heavy hitters for the Central Oakland team.

Junior Golds of OAK 'Y' WIN FIRST GAME
The Junior Golds, the miniature basketball players of the Oakland Tribune league, won their first game on the road by defeating the Winnemucca quintet on Christmas night by a score of 22 to 12. A telegram received this morning by W. A. (Bud) Kearns, physical director at the local "Y," stated that the Junior Golds were out-weighted ten pounds to a man. The second game of their trip will be played tonight at the local "Y" in Boulder, Colorado. Prey School quintet.

EMBOY OF SOVIETS

READY TO SUBMIT TO DEPORTATION

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 — Ludwig A. K. Martens, Russian soviet representative in this country, will as a foreign envoy leaving the country voluntarily at the behest shores' foundation," said Marti. "I am fully aware, as a deportee, that my recall by my government does not affect in the slightest the decision of the American government to deport me. It simply means that my government yields to the deportation proceeding, regarding this as a political decision. We have no intention whatever of 'beating U.S.A.' by making it appear that I go back on my own terms. I will, in consequence of my government's decision, be accused of having been accentuated by its order to cancel all orders placed with American firms."

MOSCOW, Dec. 28 (Special dtd Despatch).—George Tchitcherine summit commission for foreign aff.

"We have instructed our representative to cancel all pending decisions until a reversal of the United States decision makes business possible. If he must get along with America's co-operation in her economic reconstruction which requires immense amounts of materials, Finance shall do so, and it is only natural that we shall place and the concentration of our efforts together with the readiness of Europe to utilize the Russian market, we shall be less hurt by the incomprehensible attitude of America than America will hurt herself."

COUNTY PATIENTS

Once again the Alameda County Hospital Federation, aided by the Christmas Tree Fund committee, achieved its annual purpose of bringing Santa Claus to the lonely patients at Arroyo sanitarium, county tubercular institution, m

Livermore. Last night more than 25 automobiles were filled with agents of Santa Claus, singers, instrumentalists, entertainers, and workers, who traveled from Oakland to the sanitarium every year with them the greetings of the holiday season.

As was explained by Kenneth Millican, president of the hospital federation, that it is the purpose of the federation to attend to "little human nothings which public institutions cannot properly be spent on." Millican introduced Dr. J. E. Schaefert, mass tree party this year; C. R. Ritter, Alameda high school athletic coach, who arranged the

gram, and Dr. George C. Thompson principal of the Alameda high school.
Other workers given special men-

Decorated trees were the special feature of the Christmas party, which was given at the home of Mrs. Wm. Williams, who was assisted by the committee members. The guests were Mrs. Garrison, county auditor, A. W. Hinkley, assessor, and J. W. Hinkley, treasurer for the committee. The committee members were Mrs. H. M. Johnson, Mrs. S. H. Hart, who assisted in making the party a success.

The entertainment program

cluded sections by the Alameda High School orchestra, under leadership of L. M. Stratton, and the Girls' Glee club of the Alameda high school led by Mrs. H. B. Hull. C. W. Rogers told funny stories and vocal numbers were given by Mrs. J. C. Rogers, "Zunzuno and B. B.," accorded a special honor to accompany community singing.

Captain William I. Day was Sac. Claus, two days late, as he observed by reason of the torn-up condition of the state highway between Duluth and Livermore. From the tree distributed presents to all the students present.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The cotton market opened easier today, owing to weak cables at Liverpool. The decline abroad was due to the announcement of the suspension of the Bank of Brazil. Trade was quite active here. Liverpool and Wall Street interests were the heaviest sellers in the decline, while demand was secured. Spot houses sold January there being three notices issued. After selling off about ten points under the initial levels the market stirred covering orders, which rallied prices

EAST OAKLAND
SCHOOL'S SITE
FIGHT IS OVERIndependence Square Is Not to Be Used; Another Plot Is Suggested

The long squabble about using the north end of Independence square for the new East Oakland Comopolitan high school, which aroused citizens of that district to excited protest, was practically terminated last night by the board of education, which adopted a motion asking the bond expenditure committee to sell the present small parcels of school lands near the square and purchase the site for the school somewhere else.

For years East Oakland wanted a modern high school. The site was picked, but it was too small for the projected edifice. The school board asked for Independence square. Residents objected. The discussion has lasted two months, and delayed construction of a high school for that time.

"It's high time we quit fighting over the subject," said Treasurer Eugene Young last night, in making the motion.

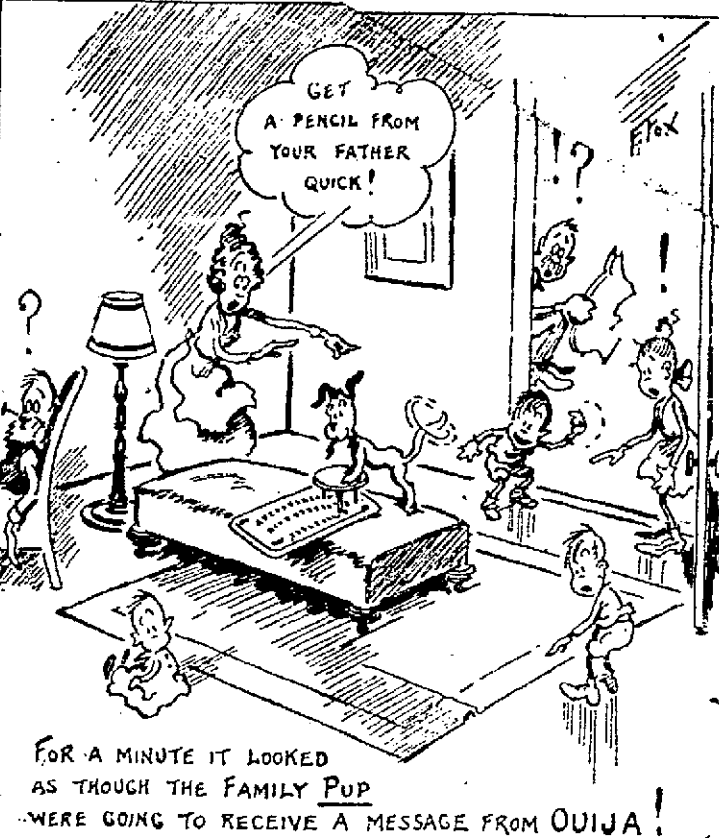

"If the property owners in that district prevent our getting the school on the park site, we must do the next best thing. The site we have been holding as a second choice must be sold."

The resolution "suggests" that it be sold, but leaves the matter to the discretion of the bond expenditure committee.

Marston Campbell of the construction department, by diagrams, showed how inadequate a site 200 by 300 feet would be for a big school like Technical High school. The present site at East Oakland would be that size.

The motion of Young's was carried unanimously. It was the only feature of business of a short session by the board.

So began the new administration of justice.

The first county apportionment of school funds to the forty-five Alameda county districts has been completed by Acting Superintendent of Schools D. E. Martin and shows a total of $833,669.80, more than half of which, or $493,214, goes to Oakland.

The rate of apportionment is $450 per teacher and $7.70 per child in average daily attendance.

Of the amount named $45,790 is given to the teachers' salary fund, $755,237 to the special fund and $32,685 to the library fund.

Exclusive of general fund, teachers' salary fund and library fund, the apportionments are as follows:

PORTABLE HUTS TO SERVE FOR SCHOOL

A sort of enclosed hut-village, something like the Eskimo village at the Chicago exposition, but much better equipped and roofed, will soon spring up at Thirty-fifth and Galindo streets as the first temporary unit of what will be the first Junior High school in Oakland, the Fruitvale Junior High School.

The Board of Education last night authorized the building department to proceed with a plan calculated to relieve the surplussage of pupils which will graduate from the elementary schools of East Oakland. The following is the plan decided on.

HERE IS PLAN APPROVED

Two units of the new Alameda and Santa Fe schools are now about completed. These schools have had portables clustered around them pending construction. As soon as the permanent schools are occupied the portables will be placed on trucks and taken to the Fruitvale Junior High School site, where they will be parked with other portables and form a hollow-square village, with a plaza and everything.

The completed school-village, with its rows of portables and with temporary roofs between houses, is expected to form one of the most unique school buildings ever seen in the West, not even barring the picturesque stockades where parents taught their children while taking pot shots at stray Indians.

USEFUL, NOT ARTISTIC
It is admitted by heads of the educational department that the new portable high school will not be ornamental or graceful, but it is asserted that it will go far toward solving a problem of overcrowding which is said to be worse this year than ever before.

Construction on the permanent Fruitvale school will be rushed in the meantime, and when it is completed the portable village will be pulled up and rushed somewhere else, just like a fire truck answering an alarm.

Danne Ruling on
Miller Tax Upheld

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—The ruling of Superior Judge Frank H. Danne was affirmed yesterday when the State Supreme Court handed down a decision that should the United States courts decide that the Henry Miller estate must pay a federal inheritance tax, the amount paid will be deducted from the final value of the estate for state inheritance taxing purposes. The attorney general appealed from the decision of the lower court.

According to the decision, it was held that the state tax levy must be based on the clear value of the property. The deduction of the federal tax would be a legitimate deduction before the state tax was computed it was held.

Heirs of the wealthy cattleman are contesting the right of the federal government to collect an inheritance tax. A test case involving the points raised in the California courts is pending in the federal courts in Cincinnati. A second case is before Federal Judge Rudkin.
